Dear Valued Distribution Partners and VPG Valued Customers,

Subject: COVID-19

As you are all aware of the world today is facing a very unique situation and we at Vishay Precision Foil are doing our utmost day by day to continue to support and manufacture products for our customers. At this point all factories are working in full capacity level to meet all of the required needs of all customers worldwide.

Since this is a dynamic situation and each day there could be new developments I wanted you to be aware that there could be changes and the Regional Sales Manager's and Customer Support teams in your territories will update you accordingly.

I strongly recommend that you send your orders asap since at some point we may begin to prioritize customers accordingly.

We appreciate your continued support.

Sincerely,

Ilanit Gedalyoviche,
Director, Division Sales & Marketing
VPG Foil Resistors
